Love Don't Hurt You

my baby's almost gone she decided to go out from this town i'll never prevent her 'cause i don't wanna do same mistake again

*i don't know what hurt you it makes stumble and fall i don't know what you wanna do we're wasted time so you should live in a new day that you can make all of it but instead of a freedom you'll have to stand yourself

**love don't hurt you so don't go away no more from love you'd better step into it get close and make up your mind we'd better open each other's heart when some of bad news came take the edge off them with your smile to be or not to be, you're asking it is the problem not at all

(* Repeat)

(** Repeat)

we both know this is the only way we are all alone to live one's life but we keep on trying to break walls without the key every days and nights are spend for this attempt and are you still do crying ?

if is it so, it's the useless thing you know it's up to you no doubt

Melody

Lyric : Masataka Hiroyasu

I woke up in one morning, finding myself Alone in an empty room of mine

The cloudy sky is moving, bringing threads of light With air so cold rolls by my face

Didn't imagine ending like this I've never thought to come again
There has been a love of bliss Turned into a pain

Walking in to park, oak trees wearing dress of fall Watching the people going by Suddenly rain starts pouring, falling onto me Knowing I've got to leave here too

How little things we really shared Though the time we spent together How could I've known to be aware The changing weather

*Memories, tracing back all troubles Coming back to me and fill me with groom

Remedies, tried to cure my heart Tried to patch up there's some missing piece

Melody, carrying me out to the days that filled with song
Then I don't feel so wrong

Decided to coming back to the empty room of mine Leaving behind the rainbow

The reflection of sky and me, each puddles on the road Showing the figures of the past

I still need the love from you To tell you honest from my heart
I don't know how to get out this blues
To make new start

(* Repeat)

I can go back to nowhere
I must move on to somewhere But I don't know where to be But I'll just keep dragging on To find the truth that I want Without you

(* Repeat and fade)

Time To Rise

Lyric : Masahiro Goto

Guiters : Ken'ichi Tajima

Piano & Strings Arrange : Akitoshi Shiomi

Most bankers spend till they lose Tellin' us we gotta pay the debt
They can't erase

Broadcasters eat on their news Helpin' cults, killin' men, tellin' wrongs What a damn case!

This land is illin' now
The bad can take it all The good always don't know their truth Honesty does not pay

You fooled guys
Must be wise
Time to rise, NOW!
Break their door
Start your war
Make them sore, HEY!

Fake preachers poison the sheep Thinkin' o' bringin' hell on the earth See us with hate

Bureaucrats let the sick weep Don't wanna help them but when they do Always too late

This land is goin' bad What should I rely on?
Tell me who I can now count on If there is someone left

Keep your eyes Find their lies
Time to rise, NOW!

You should doubt
You should shout Kick them out, HEY!

The tricky custom still exists "Never fail to put a lid on the scandal you have made"
They don't say sorry
'Til we can find out what they've done Grasp at the tail Strip off the veil
Put them in jail Bring on the gale
YOU!

It Was The Night

Lyric : Akitoshi Shiomi

Piano Arrange : Akitoshi Shiomi

Acoustic Guiter : Akitoshi Shiomi

gloomy light never bright how long would it last?

hangin' around never ends i can't think other way there's no reason why i spend my time like this memory's staying now in all my mind it was the night you're lying near kiss me without no words for love and i didn't say that stay here more was i wrong what i've done i can't recall first things clock's move but time don't pass something's wrong since the night i've been thought the night just like this will come above me again openly but now i realize it's one time only it was you not other girl it might be the night the last chance for me to tellin' the words that i need you

Smile

Lyric Masahiro Goto (Masa-san)

You just heave a sigh Vacant eyes are floating in the air
But you never cry Tryin' hard to hide your love affair

Who did break your gentle heart?
I can't see your shaded face

Smile once again
I'll ease your pain
I will drive out all your fear My word's for real Say what you feel
Time to make your troubles clear

Even when you're down Please don't think you're hopeless Keep your pride
I can be your clown Any moment I am by your side

Maybe he must've been a fool Who could leave a girl like you?

If you go out of your door There's no worry any more Love is harsh and bittersweet Sometimes made of tricks and cheat It's true
But you'll finally complete it

Never Look Down

Lyric : Masataka Hiroyasu

When the time's getting wrong again When everything starts moving to the way that you don't like
And you're standing on your toes,
Or just feeling so much low Try not to think it too bad, you can let it go

The life has face insincerity Like walking among the crowded road that's going to nowhere Sometimes you lose your way, the other time thrown away Except that if you know that there is someone who's caring about you

I'm the one who would never break your heart
I can make you feel so stronger and brighter Just trust in me and let yourself out and open up, don't look down

*I save it all for you
The simple truth and my lonely heart Don't tell me that's fool 'Cause I'll be here, right by your side, so

Your eyes shines for eternity Your words and every movement there's a song and celebrity You've been doing all your best, there's no need to be depressed
You've been making others happy, did you know?

The life is full of mystery Sometime is even more than peculiarity
They can hide with fausity over few reality But this feeling for you can't be disguised for anything but real love

Let's take a time together for a while I've been telling you to stop and look around Notice how much beauty you have got, it's just for you, for yourself

(* Repeat)

Spinning a wheel
And let the faded dreams turning around Don't ask me to slow down I'll show you how just hang on tight

I Saw You

Lyric : Akitoshi Shiomi

i saw you
i've never had a feel like this you bring me a touch of a smooth and cool velvet to me i know you are waiting for the chance to do a practical thing and soon you'll do it pointlessly

it's up to you whether shine or pouring rain which weather's comin' through so let you and i make a life hold on, weigh down hold on, let the love go down there's no other to see

i saw you
i'm coming back to you right now every ways on earth leads you to the place you want to go i call you any numbers on the phone get through to you and have only to lift up phone and talk hold on, stay awhile hold on, never let you go hold on, when i saw you

it's up to you i cry or smile tonight, oh yeah ast night we said goodbye so i cried but tomorrow you will treat me kind and smile so i'll smile don't tease me, fix your attitude

Words Of Love

Lyric Yoshiyuki Takahashi

When you sing in a clear tone
When you say the words of love My heart begins to burn Not knowing the reason why

You're the one I wish to share my time Nobody can play the part for you I can't imagine you have gone to other place not here

We have come a long way I recall the things I did to you so far I have done something wrong I regret to hurt you bad and I feel myself brand-new

Say, just what does harm you Share with me, whatever makes you cry
You gave me strength to me Cheered me up to give a smile

Now I see the scenes we're through A dream we had came true
I feel like just flying, and it lasts forever

Now I swear I'll always be here Everytime whenever you need me I do anything for you to make you ease at home, anytime

Come to me, I'll be your shelter Fly away, you and I endlessly We never break in two No matter how it goes bad
